Toni Marie SMEED

Shire of Kondinin

Councillor for Shire of Kondinin

Ordinary

SMEED, Toni is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the Shire of Kondinin.

I have lived in Kondinin for 30 years and grew up in Corrigin. My husband, Richard, and I raised our three children, Brittany, Declan, and Zali in Kondinin. Two of them have returned to the Shire to live and work.

As a qualified Early Childhood educator, I understand the needs of our families. My current roles as the Coordinator of the Kondinin Community Resource Centre and as a partner in a local business have given me a unique perspective on our community. I've also been actively involved in community work for years, currently serving as President of the Kondinin Lions and Chairperson of the Kondinin School Board.

My work as a Coordinator has given me the leadership and skills needed to be an effective councillor. After a narrow loss four years ago, I am trying again because I am dedicated to serving our community.

If elected, I will represent the entire Shire with a focus on sustainable rural communities and promoting tourism in the district. I ask for your vote so I can work for you.
